FACA MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

As a member of FACA, you will receive many benefits including access to an extensive network of service providers who are invested in increasing the self-sufficiency of Florida's citizens.

NETWORKING AND COLLABORATION

FACA maintains communication and resource-sharing between member agencies, governmental departments, other social service providers and concerned citizens. FACA provides opportunities for information exchange at the state, regional and national levels, including a statewide sharing system on clients and resources and a statewide alert network. FACA's website also hosts multiple resources and tools for networking and development.

TRAINING

FACA provides many training and technical assistance opportunities to help agencies build capacity and enhance service delivery that support the economic security and self-sufficiency continuum. Training opportunities include:

- ❖ Case Management
- ❖ Family Development
- ❖ Administration and Financial Management
- ❖ Programmatic Training and Staff Development
- ❖ Leadership, Executive Management
- ❖ Succession Planning and Strategic Planning
- ❖ Board Governance and Risk Management
- ❖ Results Oriented Management & Accountability (ROMA)
- ❖ Grant Writing

In collaboration with DCA, HHS and FHSA, FACA is developing professional performance standards and tools. As a FACA member, it will be easy for your agency to remain current and well-trained at a minimal cost.

ADVOCACY AND OUTREACH

FACA provides opportunities for member agencies to participate in statewide and national discussions on public policy and other issues affecting their communities. Important aspects of FACA's ongoing policy development are:

- ❖ FACA Legislative Day
- ❖ FACA Annual Training Conference
- ❖ FACA Website

FACA also provides Network advocacy through its membership in the NCAF, CAP, CAPLAW and the Florida and Tallahassee Chambers of Commerce. In addition, FACA events, campaigns and programs generate positive publicity for member agencies.

Membership benefits also include additional funding opportunities through FACA sub grants, opportunities to elect the FACA Board of Directors and reduced registration fees at the FACA Annual Training Conference and all FACA sponsored events.
